

Moon Sand Adventure Island Wins Infant/Preschool Toy of the Year

No other toys stimulate learning and creativity like building sets or craft creations. One great instance of a creativity-fostering set is the Moon Sand Adventure Island kit. This Toy of the Year (Infant & Preschool) for 2007 allows youngsters to create their very own fantasy island with moon sand, a substance that is conducive to forming to any shape & never dries out! The action will never get boring and there are even some molds included to help make the island scene an authentic experience no matter how cold it is outside. Included also is a case to carry the whole kit, should you decide to take the fun on-the-go.

Product Description:

Build your own adventure island, moon sand never dries out. Use it again and again. The play kit unfolds to reveal a deserted island, 3 colors of sand and molds to make huts, animals and boats. Close up your island and take your adventure with you in the hard plastic carrying case.
