

Get a Sandbox that Blends In

Now you can have a sandbox that fits right in to the landscape of your yard. No more obtrusive bright colors. What's even better is that when your child grows up and has no interest in playing in the sand anymore you can use this natural looking box as a planter.

Product Description:

The Naturally Playful Sandbox is an attractive sandbox with a unique design. Featuring outdoor textures and natural colors, this sandbox blends right in to any backyard. Made of sturdy, durable plastic, this sandy play area looks like it's made from real stone, and contains four molded-in "cornerstone" seats. The sunshine-motif lid protects the sand from weather, debris or any backyard critters. Plus, when the kids grow up, parents can even use the Naturally Playful Sandbox as a large planter. Comes fully assembled. Sand and sand toys sold separately. Measures approximately 51" x 37" x 15.5".
